Editorial Review

From the Author

For over 25 years I played at craps tables with the greatest dice controllers in the world; including the best I ever saw, a woman known as "the Arm." I learned all the essentials of being a great craps player and a great gambler from the true genius of craps, the late Captain, the legendary player from Atlantic City.

For 10 years I taught dice control classes with Golden Touch Craps until I left the group in 2012.

Yes, my skills have also been something of a dark cloud over my head as many casinos, casino venues and whole states have banned me from playing in their jurisdictions, despite the fact that I do not violate any laws.

All of my adventures I recount in I Am a Dice Controller: Inside the World of Advantage-Play Craps!

Sad to say, I have also met talented dice controllers whose character and morality left a lot to be desired. In fact, I found myself robbed and cheated by a dice controller I considered a close friend, a betrayal I still haven't gotten over.

This book lays it all out there for you to see. I hope you enjoy it!
