Editorial Review

About the Author

Fred M. Gottheil is a professor of economics at the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign. He came to Illinois in 1960, planning to spend one year before returning to his native Canada. But he fell in love with the campus, the community, and the Midwest, and has been at Illinois ever since. He earned his undergraduate degree at McGill University in Montreal, Canada and his Ph.D. at Duke University. His primary teaching is the principles of economics, and on occasion, he has taught the history of economic thought, Marxian economics, and the economics of the Middle East. He is the author of "Marx's Economic Predictions" and numerous articles that have appeared in scholarly journals, among them the "American Economic Review", the "Canadian Journal of Economics", the "Journal of Post-Keynesian Economics" and the "Middle East Reviews." Although he enjoys research, his labor of love is teaching the principles course. His classes have been as large as 1,800 students. He has won a plethora of teaching from the university, the college, and department of economics. Aside from his research and publications as a professor of economics, Professor Gottheil is also on the university's medical faculty, co-teaching the College of Medicine's course on medicine and society. As well, he is director of the University of Illinois's Center of Economic Education. In this capacity, he organizes and team-teaches minicourses and workshops on the principles of economics. He was a White House consultant on the Middle East during the Carter Administration and offered expert testimony to several congressional committees. Professor Gottheil was a visiting professor at Northwestern University and at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Israel. He has lectured at many universities in the United States, Canada, and abroad, including universities in Syria, Egypt, Israel, and Jordan.

In this 21st century, people become competitive in each way. By being competitive currently, people have do something to make them survives, being in the middle of typically the crowded place and notice by surrounding. One thing that oftentimes many people have underestimated that for a while is reading. That's why, by reading a reserve your ability to survive increase then having chance to remain than other is high. For yourself who want to start reading a book, we give you this kind of Principles of Microeconomics book as nice and daily reading reserve. Why, because this book is greater than just a book.

William Glover:

People live in this new moment of lifestyle always try to and must have the free time or they will get lots of stress from both day to day life and work. So , if we ask do people have free time, we will say absolutely yes. People is human not only a robot. Then we inquire again, what kind of activity do you have when the spare time coming to you actually of course your answer will probably unlimited right. Then ever try this one, reading textbooks. It can be your alternative with spending your spare time, typically the book you have read is actually Principles of Microeconomics.

Kathryn Hill:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's soul or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Principles of Microeconomics can make you really feel more interested to read.
