Editorial Review

Review

"A very distinguished crew of experts offers a survey of both literary theory and critical practice <> and the non-British national developments are especially noteworthy here. Humanism's impact is clearly explained. Every serious library needs this Cambridge series and this may be the most important volume in the series. Again: read surveys like this to put your specialities in perspective." Bibliotheque D'Humanisme

"[This volume]...is informative, intelligent, and, in places, exciting to read. It will serve generations of scholars and students of the Renaissance exceedingly well." Sixteenth Century Journal
