Making Life a Masterpiece By Orison Swett Marden

An inspirational book that teaches you how to make your life as “complete and successful as possible.” Marden shows you how to recover from failure and make your life into a masterpiece.

Chapters include: Where your opportunity is; Curing the curse of indecision; Unlocking your possibilities; Keeping at it; Bettering our best; The will to succeed; “Shrinking from the disagreeable”; Self-control; The secret of happiness

REVIEWS:

"Brims over with optimism...a steady gleam of sunshine on a gloomy day."--Portland Oregonian.

"No reader will find difficulty in reading one of his books; the difficulty lies in forgetting its truth."--Norfolk Ledger Dispatch.

"If luck seems to be passing you by on the wrong side, read this book."--Christian Advocate.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Orison Swett Marden (1850 - 1924), an American writer, physician and businessman, was a leader of the New Thought Movement. Marden believed that our thoughts influence our lives and our life circumstances: “We make the world we live in and shape our own environment.” Known for his books on financial success, he always emphasized that such success comes from personal development: “The golden opportunity you are seeking is in yourself. It is not in your environment; it is not in luck or chance, or the help of others; it is in yourself alone.” Marden authored several volumes on success, cultivating will-power, and positive thinking. He also founded Success Magazine.
